MESSAGE //

Experiencing Colin's motivational message,
> 'You are ten times better than you think' or
> 'You are your A.S.S.E.T.S.'

You'll get business savvy that sticks
You'll get common sense ideas that work
You'll get it all wrapped in a fast moving package of outrageous 'victim ventriloquism' with a member of the audience, wacky stories, zany sing-along songs, active audience participation, and one laugh after another.

Colin says, "Since 9/11, Bali, and all the corporate collapses, people everywhere are on edge. Let me scrape a few barnacles off your people's hearts and plug up the holes where the despair has leaked in. Then hope comes back - along with better teamwork and better relationships with your customers."
